Train with MEGAN MEHL

Megan's dance training began at Millers Dance Studio and Dance Intensity. In High School, her training brought her to Grandview High School where she was a proud member of the Varsity Pom team. Megan continued to dance in college at Northern Colorado where she earned her degree in Elementary Education and received her Masters in curriculum, instruction, and assessment. In her coaching career of over 10+ years, Megan has helped teams earn multiple State Titles and national recognition - most notably as a coach at Grandview High School. Currently, Megan is the Mini Program Director at SPARK and also works as an instructor for junior teams.
